

Practice Profile

Jack Triggs joined 5 King's Bench Walk in October 2016 as a first six pupil. Jack has experience in conducting criminal cases in the Crown Court, Youth Court and Magistrates' Court.

Prior to commencing pupillage Jack worked as a Coroner's Officer, with responsibility for the investigation and preparation of inquests into deaths occurring within complex medical situations and in custody.

After obtaining an LLB from University College London, Jack completed his BPTC at BPP Law School, Holborn.

Areas of Practice

- General Crime
- Inquests

Recent Cases