

Practice Profile

Patrick joined Chambers in September 2017 as a first six pupil.

Before starting pupillage Patrick gained experience at a leading criminal defence and human rights firm, working on public law and civil matters touching on criminal justice, as well as assisting with public inquiry and inquest work. He also works in a voluntary capacity for FRU, where he sits on the management committee.

Patrick completed the BPTC at City Law School, having gained a BA in European Studies, followed by an LLM, both at Leeds University.

Areas of Practice

- General Crime

Recent Cases
