

Practice Profile

Phoebe Bragg joined 5 King's Bench Walk in October 2016 as a first six pupil. Phoebe has experience in conducting criminal cases in the Crown Courts, Youth Courts, and Magistrates' Courts.

During her first six months of pupillage, she received the Ann Goddard Scholarship from Gray's Inn. Before commencing her pupillage at 5 King's Bench Walk, Phoebe completed the BPTC at City Law School, London. She has previously worked as a paralegal, on capital defence cases in the United States and in the Criminal Law and Terrorism Division of the Council of Europe.

Phoebe completed her BA in Law at Trinity College, Oxford University.

Areas of Practice

- General Crime

Recent Cases